Countless women play by the rules of dating and relationships or biased men that keep them in a state of constant stress and care. The victims of romance instead of the champions of love, today's women settle for cheap dates and cheaper speeches. Why are you going to share the bill with the man who's supposed to spoil you? Why are you preparing home-cooked food for a man who can't offer you a home? Why are you having sex with a man who promises the world but refuses to give his heart? Why are you playing by outdated rules in the hope that one day your kindness will be rewarded? I have found a group of women who refuse abuse, are immune to manipulation and who never settle in the name of love. These women know what they want and take what they want by hitting men at their own game. By using the secrets revealed in this book, these women gain power, money and status. Men call them a gold digger, women call them hos, but they call them Online Ho Tactics (Uncut Edition): How mind**k a man consumes, spoils and sponsors G.L. I just needed to see what this book was all about. Worst-case scenario, I have a crazy inspiration for a heroine. I walked into this book in camera. But I stopped it at this new rule. Rule: She talked about the man's mind and how some men work in relationships. It made me realize I wasn't crazy enough to play a lot of game here and I'm right to walk by and pass these losers. But this is a thing, you have to get through the fact that he calls a bunch of women Hos and he gives advice on how to be a . She even created new words like: Luckily, only 10% of the book has sex. Most of the book deals with how to navigate phone conversations, easy ways to approach friends, etc. But a lot of it was about guys. Of course, tons of lessons could be taken from the novel without venturing down the path of hooden. But if you want a sponsor... And then there were some other things that made me think, damn, I hope that's not true. Hos has an advantage over normal women because they are not burdened by honesty or loyalty. Thus, they can sink to a level that a stylish woman would never stoop to, they can say things that a girlfriend would be ashamed to say, and they can do sexually things that a woman who wants to marry is not comfortable doing until she wears a ring. How can you compete with someone who's willing to break the rules? A man picks Ho 9 out of 10 because men cherish excitement about stability.

definitely the most memorable. I bought another one that dealt with the Non-Hoe trait. I'm trying to make Oprah money, but with my hard work. Not from his brother's pockets. I'd curse him out before he even grabbed his wallet. Wallet.
